Bull Realty Adds to Retail Group

Imran Ahmad
V.P. Retail Group

ATLANTA, GA– Bull Realty is pleased to announce the addition of Imran Ahmad, a seasoned commercial real estate broker, to its Retail Group. With more than a decade of experience and over $100 million in closed transactions, Ahmad brings a relationship-first, result-driven approach to client service.

Specializing in the acquisition and disposition of retail properties, Imran is widely recognized for his strong foundation in sales, negotiation, and strategic advising. His success has been built on a commitment to long-term partnerships, referrals, and delivering consistent value for clients.

“I joined Bull Realty because it helps me do what clients care about most: getting the best outcome. The research is real, the marketing is modern, and the investor network is deep at Bull Realty. With my Retail focus, I can provide sharper execution for sellers across Atlanta and the Southeast. Excited to learn and grow,” said Ahmad.

Before joining Bull Realty, Imran established a successful business by placing people over transactions. Known for his attention to detail and thoughtful follow-through, he has become a trusted advisor to clients seeking insight, strategy, and long-term success in retail real estate.

Now aligned with Bull Realty’s 20+ years of market expertise, Imran is well-positioned to provide comprehensive advisory services with an emphasis on integrity, innovation, and client loyalty.

Bull Realty’s Retail Group offers tailored disposition and acquisition services for retail investments across the Southeast U.S. The team also specializes in tenant representation, site selection, project leasing, and asset management in and around metro Atlanta.
