Bull Realty Announces Four New Partners

Colt Neal

Davis Finney

Marco Welch

Scott Spalding, CCIM

ATLANTA, GEORGIA— Commercial real estate brokerage services firm Bull Realty celebrates its twenty-fourth year in business this month with the announcement of four additional firm Partners, Scott Spalding, Marco Welch, Colt Neal and Davis Finney.

Scott Spalding, CCIM joined Bull Realty in 2018 with 15 years commercial real estate and investment guidance experience. As president of the firm's Apartment Group, Scott and his team assist clients with the acquisition and disposition of apartment communities across the Southeast. The Los Angeles native graduated from Morehouse College with a degree in business and real estate.

Marco Welch joined Bull Realty's Apartment Group in 2020 with 16 years of commercial real estate experience. Welch joined the Apartment Group at Bull Realty teaming with Scott Spalding. The Chicago native successfully closed over $100 million worth of transactions between 2020 and 2021.

Colt Neal and Davis Finney both joined the firm in 2018 teaming with company founder Michael Bull on the Government Leased Investment Sales team. Neal graduated with a real estate degree from the University of Georgia's Terry College of Business. Finney graduated from the University of Georgia's Terry College of Business with a degree in risk management.

They join existing firm partners Nancy Miller CCIM, Daniel Latshaw CCIM, Paul Zeman, Andy Lundsberg, Darrell Chapman, John DeYonker, Michael Wess CCIM and firm founder Michael Bull CCIM.

“We are proud to award Scott, Marco, Colt and Davis Partner status. They exemplify the type of integrity, service and success that keeps us growing after 24 years,” said Michael Bull, CEO. Among other benefits the Bull Realty’s partner plan awards top producing agents the opportunity to share in company profits.
