Bull Realty Expands Government Group

Derek Sanders, MBA

Atlanta, GA - Former GSA Lease Contracting Officer Derek Sanders has joined Bull Realty's Government Group.

Derek has over ten years' experience in commercial real estate with special expertise assisting landlords and tenants leasing government occupied space.

His expertise includes office, industrial, and other specialty properties leased to the General Services Administration (GSA) for federal agencies, as well as properties leased to the state and local government entities. He has been responsible for drafting lease agreements on behalf of the federal government and has managed the full scope of the real estate acquisition process, including negotiations, acquisitions, contract administration, contract terminations, utility management, and lease renewals. In negotiating lease agreements for the government, Derek consistently applied sound business judgment, persuasive techniques, and conflict resolution strategies to secure fair and favorable terms.

Derek graduated from the University of Alabama, where he also earned a varsity letter as a member of the University of Alabama Football Team. He holds an MBA from Keller Graduate School of Management and is a 2012 graduate of Project REAP (The Real Estate Associate Program).

Derek resides in the metro Atlanta with his wife, daughter, and two sons. He enjoys supporting his children in their athletic activities, spending quality time with his family, and cheering on Alabama Crimson Tide.
